PRESS RELEASE

Bonn, May 20, 2015

Data Privacy Management Solution 2B Advice PrIME 5.1 introduced; free single-user license available

2B Advice, international consulting firm specializing in data privacy, is offering Version 5.1 of its data privacy software 2B Advice PrIME starting today. 2B Advice PrIME (Privacy Inventory, Management & Education) is the successor of the established data privacy software 2B Secure. Companies of any size or industry can use 2B Advice PrIME to manage all of their data privacy needs, from creating the process directory and monitoring data processing to auditing and employee training. More than 1,000 companies in Europe and the U.S. use 2B Advice PrIME to organize data privacy management for their operations. 45,000 audits and web-based training sessions have been completed so far using the online services of 2B Advice PrIME. A free license for a single-user trial with no time limit can be obtained here:

The enhancements to 2B Advice PrIME 5.1 are the result of day-to-day consulting experience at 2B Advice and a variety of client requests. "It is our goal to support a company's wide variety of data privacy management needs to the fullest," says Hans Joachim Bickenbach, Director of Sales at 2B Advice.

The new version of 2B Advice PrIME 5.1 allows users to administer and document policies and guidelines of their company organization as well as perform audits of commissioned data processors. The overall audit and online audit functions have been expanded with new functions. The interface has been redesigned as a modern and ergonomic web interface which allows users to utilize the monitor size and resolution in modern workspaces to full capacity. Ribbons allow for intuitive
